INTRODUCTION

This handbook is a guide for UIC theatre majors and minors. It includes policies, requirements, and procedures fundamental to successfully completing a degree in theatre. Lack of compliance with these guidelines and procedures may result in written warnings from the department, academic probation, fines or delayed graduation.

PLEASE READ ALL OF THE INFORMATION CAREFULLY AND COMPLETELY.

The Department of Theatre at the University of Illinois at Chicago is one of two departments that make up the School of Theatre & Music in the College of Architecture, Design, and the Arts.

EMERGENCY NUMBERS

- Police/Fire Emergencies: 312-355-5555 (5-5555 from a campus phone)
- Non-Emergencies: 312-996-2830
- StarTel: brown poles with blue lights at the top, which are found campus-wide. You can use these for any emergency, in the event that you do not have another phone.
The Department of Music is located on the lower level of the Education, Theatre & Music, and Social Work Building (ETMSW) at 1040 West Harrison.

a. ETMSW Building Hours and Card Access

ETMSW is open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. during the week and closed on weekends. Students can obtain 24-hour access to the building with their I-card, which can be arranged in the main office.

b. School of Theatre & Music Main Office

The School of Theatre & Music Main Office is located in room L017 of ETMSW. Office hours are 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Monday - Friday. The Main Office telephone is 312-996-2977.

c. Practice Rooms

Practice Rooms are assigned to music majors and minors. These rooms are provided as part of your education and shared with multiple students. It is each student’s responsibility to adhere to the Practice Room Bill of Rights posted on each door. Failure to adhere to guidelines will result in loss of room privileges. Practice room keys may be obtained in the Main Office. Keys are provided to music majors at no cost, but there is a $15 fee to replace a lost key.

Priority for practice rooms is given to music majors, minors, and members of performance ensembles. Two rooms are kept unlocked to accommodate the public. Personal items may not be left in the practice rooms.

d. Lockers

You are eligible to use a locker for storing your belongings. See Neal McCollam in L284 to make arrangements.

e. Music Media Lab

The Music Media Mac Lab (L211) is open during the week for all students, and is equipped with both software and hardware specific to STM majors. The lab is open M-F from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The schedule may vary due to use of the lab for courses. A schedule is posted on the door each semester. The computers in the lab require a Net ID and Password to login.

Any unauthorized use of the space may result in immediate removal or prohibited access in the future. It is important to treat the lab with respect. Do not eat or drink in the lab, and keep your voice to a library level. If you have any questions, please ask the lab monitor posted in the back of the room.

f. Room Sign-out

Students may be able to reserve various STM spaces for small rehearsals or study sessions. This only can be done through the main office with appropriate department approval.

g. Rehearsal Room Reservations

Classes and class projects are given first priority for use of classroom and theatre spaces. Any and all rehearsal spaces must be signed out in advance with Neal McCollam in room L282. Be sure to “restore” all rooms (furniture, lights, etc.) to the neutral room condition posted so that the room is ready clear for the next user. Do not remove rehearsal furniture, chairs, etc. and do NOT store them in the halls.

h. Student Performance Projects
While we wish to encourage student-initiated projects, our departmental resources are very limited. Therefore, all student projects that use departmental resources (rooms, other theater students, lights, etc.) must have sponsorship from either a faculty member as related to a course (e.g., a required course, Independent Study THTR 498, or Special Project THTR 466) or from a student organization. Student-initiated productions cannot be scheduled for the last month of classes through the finals period.

i. Bulletin Boards
The Callboard
The bulletin board located in the hallway to the right of the box office posts announcements pertinent to both classes and productions (UIC only). IT IS EACH STUDENT’S RESPONSIBILITY TO CHECK THE CALL BOARD DAILY!

The Call Board includes:
• Personal messages
• Rehearsal and costume fitting schedules
• Audition notices (for UIC productions and projects only)
• Class changes
• General information

Outside Announcements
The board to the left of the box office posts non-UIC productions, auditions, and theatre-related miscellany.
See boards outside individual instructors’ offices for discipline-related news.

j. Script Library
Majors may borrow scripts for up to two weeks only from the script library in the resource room (L033)—you may sign out books in the 3-ring binder on the bookshelf. Please read the instructions posted in L033 about returning books. The main campus library, The Daley Library, also has a good collection of scripts, books, and videos relevant to your coursework. Late fees there are $25 per day, so return books on time.

k. Copy Machines
Xerox machines are found in the following nearby locations:
• Copy Stop—at Student Center East
• Daley Library
• Student Services Building (SSB)

The department copy machine is only to be used by faculty, staff, and student employees.

l. Green Room
Located next to the studio theatre, the green room is open at all times for reading, eating, and relaxing. There must be absolute silence during those times when classes are being held in L467. Please clean up after yourself.

m. Food

There are food vendors and a cafeteria—open from 7 a.m. to 3 p.m.—in the Behavioral Sciences Building just across Harrison Ave from our building. Student Center East also has a large cafeteria with several fast food vendors and is open until 7 p.m. Port Center Café, on the ground floor of University Hall, has coffee drinks, sandwiches, salads, pastries, etc. Taylor Street also has many good food choices. In the STM building, vending machines are located on the east end of the 2nd floor.

n. Personal Property / Lost & Found

Please be sure to keep your belongings with you and dispose of your own trash. Please turn in found belongings to staff in the Box Office. When in performance/rehearsal, turn in found belongings to your Stage Manager. A campus Lost and Found is on the second floor of Student Center East.

o. Parking

The University Parking Office is located in the Student Services Building, 1200 W. Racine. To obtain parking privileges, you must have a valid I-card.

3 Costume/Prop Loan

Each class in which department property (sound/lights/props/costumes/set) is needed MUST have a student liaison appointed by the instructor. All property requests must initiate from the class liaison and A at least 24 hours advance notice is required. Last-minute requests will not be granted. Liaisons should give costume requests to Jane Bagnall in the Costume Shop, Tuesday through Friday between 12 and 5 only. For other “hard tech” requests see Carl Ulaszek in the Scene Shop, Tuesday through Friday between 12 and 5 only. Property request forms are on the door of each shop.

Student-generated projects do not receive technical support simply because of resource and schedule limitations. Faculty and staff will assist as time permits, but their first priority is to classroom and department production/performance needs.
4 Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Acting Major Requirements

BFA Students wishing to transfer to the BA program must submit a petition in writing to their advisor. The petition should state a well-reasoned rationale for such a shift. The decision to grant the petition will be made by the full faculty at the first faculty meeting, subsequent to the petition being filed.

BA Students wishing to audition for the BFA Program may audition once to do so. These auditions take place in February or March of each year, and are arranged through Neal McCollam. If rejected, the student retains the BA status. All students who have auditioned twice (once for acceptance to UIC, the second for transferring into the BFA program) and not been accepted into the BFA can only move into the BFA program by a unanimous invitation from the performance faculty.

Theatre Students from other disciplines who want to minor in theatre must complete at least 18 hours in theatre. At least 12 of the 18 hours must be at the upper division level. Students must complete the minor declaration form to add a theatre minor. These forms can be found in the STM Main Office, L017.

8 Obligations of Majors

Professionalism

The Theatre and Music Faculty values the professionalism expected of any working artist in the field. Professionalism in this program is defined as:

- Making satisfactory progress through the theater curriculum
- Being on time and prepared for classes, rehearsals, meetings, and performances
- Actively participating in classes, rehearsals, meetings, and performances
- Knowing your lines when required
- Implementing performance notes to the best of your ability
- Respecting instructors, class and cast members and their property
- Collaborating effectively and willingly with class and cast members
- Communicating in a timely fashion with class and cast mates regarding rehearsals
- Communicating in a timely fashion to your instructors and advisors regarding absences and any difficulties you are having that are affecting your work
- Avoiding the misuse or unauthorized possession of intoxicants (e.g., alcohol), controlled or illegal substances, drug paraphernalia, or materials dangerous to public health and safety
- Adhering to the guidelines set forth in the Student Handbook.

Professionalism is also expected of students when involved in department-related activities off-campus (field trips, internships, etc.). In addition, students are expected to adhere to the laws of the State of Illinois and the Standards of Conduct as defined by the University in its Student Disciplinary Policy, reprinted here in Appendix A. Failure to adhere to the above Obligations of Majors may result in being put on casting restriction for the following semester, the forfeiture of tuition/scholarship monies, and/or a Warning.

Warnings, Disciplinary Policy and Due Process

Failure to adhere to professionalism standards and policies of the department or university will result in the following departmental disciplinary actions:

- Action #1—student will receive a written Warning that explains the infraction, and, in some cases, an assignment of service to the department (to promote a positive learning experience) and/or a proposed remedy (counseling, tutoring, etc.).
- Action #2—student will receive a written notification that continuation in the theatre program is prohibited.

Because warnings are a serious issue, they will be issued only after deliberation and agreement by the theatre faculty. Warnings are drafted by the student’s advisor, signed by the Coordinator of Theatre Studies, and sent via mail or email to the student. A second copy will be put in the student’s file. The Advisor will inform the student that a Warning is being sent. Warnings can be contested in a Letter of Appeal submitted to the Chair of the Department.
Auditions and Casting
Theatre majors are given casting priority. All BFA students (except first-semester BFA students, who shall neither audition nor be cast in any department or student-generated performances) are required to audition for all mainstage productions. Failure to do so will result in a written Warning. All who audition must accept casting as assigned, and should enroll for appropriate course credit (usually THTR 280).

Off-Campus Performances
Students who seek performance opportunities outside the UIC theatre production program must file a petition for this with her/his advisor, who will present it to the performance faculty. The petition must show the faculty that the performance and rehearsal dates in no way conflict with class and department obligations. The decision to grant or deny permission is the decision of the performance faculty.

Crew Assignments
Because participation in all aspects of production is important to the mission of this program, all BA and BFA freshman and sophomore students are required to fulfill a production assignment. Freshman are required to serve as production run-crew for one mainstage show per academic year. Sophomores are required to serve as production build crew for one mainstage show per academic year. All sophomores must complete a 20 hour minimum crew assignment. Each class will be divided into two groups at the beginning of the year. Students in the first group will be assigned to the fall semester; students in the second group will be assigned to the spring semester. Specific run-crew/build assignments for all freshman and sophomore students will be posted at the beginning of each semester, after casting has been posted for the shows that semester. Freshman who are assigned to run-crew are required to be available for tech weekend, all dress rehearsals, all performances and strike for the production they are assigned to and to participate each day/night until they are released by a supervising faculty member or stage management. Sophomores assigned to a build crew are required to attend all scheduled build-crew times and strike for the production they are assigned to and to participate each scheduled day until they are released by a supervising faculty member. Transfer students will participate in the expectations of the year for which they qualify. Example: if a student comes in to the theatre program with sophomore standing, they will serve as build crew for one show. If they come in with junior standing, they have no obligation to serve on a run or build crew.

Failure to honor a production assignment may result in a student being put on casting restriction for the following semester, in receiving a Warning, and/or in the forfeiture of tuition/scholarship monies.

TO CHANGE AN ASSIGNMENT: The crew assignment is an important part of your theatre education here at UIC. After the assignments are posted at the beginning of each semester, a student may petition to request a change in his/her assignment due to irreconcilable academic or personal conflicts. This must be done within 48 hours of the assignments being posted, through the Production Manager. Faculty will make every effort to honor requests. No request will be considered after 48 hours of posting.

Strike
ALL BAs and BFAs are assigned to STRIKE AS NEEDED PER SEMESTER (at least one strike per semester). Check the board for those assignments. EVERYONE WHO IS CALLED FOR STRIKE MUST REMAIN UNTIL THEY ARE RELEASED BY Carl Ulaszek, Joey Wade, or Jane Bagnall. Be sure to sign in when you
Failure to serve may result in being put on casting restriction for the following semester, in receiving a Warning, and/or in the forfeiture of tuition/scholarship monies.

Casting Suspension
Casting suspension means that students are neither allowed to audition nor to be cast during a specified restriction period. Poor class work, indicated by GPA in theatre courses, will result in a student’s suspension from casting until the GPA meets program standards as defined by the performance faculty. Decisions regarding Casting Suspension are made by the faculty. Students on academic probation will automatically be placed on casting suspension until the student returns to satisfactory academic standing.

Audition Waiver
BFA students are permitted, upon occasion, to be excused from auditioning for one semester. Students must petition the full faculty (through their advisor) for an Audition Waiver explaining the reasons for the request. Petitions must be presented at least one week before any and all auditions for the semester in question begin. (This includes auditions that occur in the preceding semester.) If granted, approval will pertain to all shows being produced that semester.

Rehearsal Regulations
Mainstage performances are 3-credit-hour courses (THTR 280) and are therefore graded. All student actors are expected to come prepared to all rehearsals, as per the director’s instruction and the Standards of Professionalism listed on page 3. Tardiness and absences are unacceptable, therefore no one is “excused” from rehearsal for any reason, including classes or work. In short, anyone involved in daily rehearsals must entirely clear their schedule of classes, work, or doctors’ appointments. (Absences are allowable in cases of illness or family emergency. Students are expected to contact the Stage Manager and the director immediately in all cases regarding lateness or absences, illness, transportation issues.) If you are commuting cross-campus from a class to rehearsal, inform the director and the stage manager.

Directors rehearse 20 hours each week, divided as they choose—typically weekday afternoons (roughly 5:00-9:00 pm), but sometimes on weekend days to the 20-hour limit. Tech rehearsals typically include one or two “10-out-of-12” days and take place the weekend immediately prior to opening of the production. Dress rehearsals during the week of opening are often in the evening, and can go as late as 11 pm.

Rehearsal Clothes
All students should have the following rehearsal clothes as needed for rehearsals and for class work:

- MEN: soft-soled shoes (dance/jazz shoes), work-out pants, hard-soled shoes, suit (pants, shirt, jacket, and tie)
- WOMEN: soft-soled shoes (dance/jazz shoes), work-out pants, character shoes (any color but with a heel), skirts (1 knee length, 1 floor length)

Rehearsal and class clothes should not have large logos or distracting images on them. When in productions, be sure your rehearsal costume approximates the costume being designed for your character. Make use of the many thrift stores in Chicago. For the rehearsal process, Costumes will only supply unusual items such as corsets.
Costume Fittings
Costume fittings for all cast members in mainstage productions will be scheduled by the stage manager or posted for you on the call board. Please be on time for all fittings. If an emergency arises and you are unable to make your scheduled fitting, inform the stage manager and the Costume Shop/Jane Bagnall: 312-413-8560.

Complimentary Tickets
For each production every cast and crew member receives two complimentary tickets for the run of that show. Please make arrangements with the box office for these tickets.

10 THEATRE PERFORMANCE OPPORTUNITIES

Chicago Circle Players
CCP is the oldest functioning student organization on campus. All productions are selected, directed, performed, and produced by the student body in the first week of each semester. It is not a department organization, but because it often utilizes department resources, its requests for technical support come to the department, which strives to support the work while also keeping the students’ coursework as its first priority. Proposals for all CCP projects should be given, in written form, by the CCP president to its faculty advisor Joey Wade. Please see CCP for more information.

Fifty-Minute Theater
FMT is an opportunity for students and faculty to present one-off staged readings, guest speakers, and simple performances (poetry, new works, one-acts, etc.) between 12 and 1pm of any weekday except Tuesday. Performances may use any department space not used at that time—all arrangements should go through Neal McCollam, Events Administrator. Fifty-Minute Theater pieces must have no technical, design, or costume requirements and be minimally rehearsed.

Because rehearsal space and other departmental resources are so limited, no student-generated work may rehearse or perform in the Studio or the Mainstage during the last month of each semester. A performances must take place before early November and early April.

11 ACADEMIC EXPECTATIONS

Communication Pipeline
Students are encouraged to discuss questions or concerns regarding a particular course first with the instructor. Further communication should be sought in the following order:

1. Student’s Advisor
2. Head of Program Area (Professor Yasen Peyankov, 312.413.2114)
3. Chair of Department (Professor Tanera Marshall, 312.996.7660)
4. Dean of Students (Milly Crespo, 312.996.3351)

Class Attendance
Because performance classes require in-class participation, which cannot be “made up,” attendance in ALL classes is mandatory. The faculty of the Department of Theatre and Music believes attendance and discipline are vital to the success of each student. The theatre program’s standard expectation is that each student can be absent a total of 3 times per semester for a M-W-F class, and 2 times per semester for a T-Th class. Subsequent absences can result in lowering your final grade or a failing grade. Individual faculty members may deviate from this departmental standard at their discretion, and this will be noted on the course syllabus.
Each time you miss class, no matter what the circumstances are, you receive one absence. If you are ill for an extended period or if there are extenuating circumstances special consideration may be granted at the discretion of the instructor.

Because theatre classes are small and your absence can affect that day’s work, always call your instructor(s) prior to the beginning of class so they know not to expect you and can make any necessary adjustments to their lesson plans. It is your responsibility to find out about any assignments or homework.

Tardiness
Perpetual tardiness will simply not be tolerated. You are considered late if you arrive after instruction has begun. You will be considered absent if you arrive after a certain time—see each instructor’s syllabus.

Grades
While the minimum grade prerequisite in theatre courses is a C, students earning two or more Cs will require consensus approval of the theatre faculty for continuation in the program.

For Performance majors (BFA and BAP), a grade of “C” or below in any performance subject having a more advanced course (in that subject) following it warrants a written Warning (see "Warnings," page 4).

For Design majors (BAD) a grade of “C” or below in any design subject having a more advanced course (in that subject) following it warrants a written Warning.

Students receiving an “F” must repeat said course. Please refer to each instructor’s syllabus for grading guidelines.

Required Courses and Waivers *
All required courses in each degree track must be completed. Requests for waivers of required courses in order to accelerate a student’s graduation date will not be granted.

Registration
Following initial enrollment, all students are assigned an advisor from the theatre faculty. There is a hold on your registration until you have been advised each semester. Your advisor will post advising times on his/her door and you should choose one, then come to your session with a proposed schedule, including electives (consult your DARS report). Students will not be allowed to register until after meeting with their advisor, who then will release the registration hold. Spring semester registration usually begins in the 9th week of the semester (for Seniors), the 10th week (for Sophomores and Juniors), and the 11th week (for first-years). For issues involving late registration, leaves of absence, declaring a major, etc., first see your advisor and then contact the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs (aka the College Office) at 208 Jefferson Hall, 312-996-3351.

Add/Drop and Withdrawals
You can add or drop a course up until the 2nd week of classes. If the drop deadline is past, you can still withdraw from a course. Unlike a Drop, a Withdrawal will be recorded on your transcript; avoid doing this unless absolutely necessary. A retroactive withdrawal—-at the end of, or just after, a semester—is possible for one or all of your courses in extenuating circumstances, such as ill health or financial difficulties. Begin retroactive withdrawal process in the College office, 208, Jefferson Hall, explain the circumstances of your request to the Associate Dean of Students, whose approval is needed to finalize this request.

Books
Books for courses are listed on each instructor’s syllabus, and can be purchased at the University Bookstore in Student Center East.

Rehearsal Clothing & Equipment
Many classes require students to wear movement clothes, be barefoot, or dress according to the needs of the class work. Please read your syllabi carefully for specific instructions.

Student Evaluations
The theatre student evaluation is a critical academic component of a candidate’s satisfactory progress in the theatre curriculum (BFA/BA) as outlined under “Professionalism.” All BFA candidates will have individual semester-end reviews with the performance faculty. Evaluations typically take place during the last week of classes. The schedule will be posted on the call board.

Faculty Evaluations
All UIC Students have the opportunity to evaluate their instructors in written form at the end of each semester.

Incompletes
An Incomplete for a course needs to be made up by the end of the next semester in which you are enrolled. Example: if you get an Incomplete for a Spring course and are not enrolled in the summer, your deadline is the end of the Fall semester. If you cannot make up an Incomplete because you need to re-take the course and it is not offered again until two semesters later, make sure that your college advisor puts a note in your file explaining this delay in a grade before you re-take the course. After 1 year, students need permission from the college office to submit a late grade change for an Incomplete grade.

Graduation
A student must file an Intent to Graduate form online, one semester before graduation. Transfer students are reminded that there is no program guarantee of a specific timeline to achieve course credits toward graduation. All students are expected to complete the degree’s courses in the sequence determined for that track (BFA, BAP, or BAD).

Visitors
Visitors to classes are generally discouraged. At the instructor’s discretion, visitors may be allowed.

12 ADVISING

Each student is assigned a faculty advisor, and that list is posted on the callboard at advising time. You will see your advisor every semester during the registration period while you are at UIC. Your advisor typically assists you with curriculum / registration issues (see “Registration”). If you have questions or concerns about a class, always speak first with the instructor. If that does not resolve the situation, then see your advisor.

All students regardless of major are required to meet with an advisor every semester. Failure to meet with an advisor will result in a hold on permission to register for classes.
Midway through the first semester, a list of students and their advisors will be posted on the bulletin board in the blue hallway. This list is the primary source telling students who their advisor is. Prior to registration for classes, students will contact their advisors to make appointments. Students should consult the course catalogue and timetable, then bring a completed advising form with them to the advising session.

The advisor will make sure the form is accurate, make any needed modifications or explore possible class alternatives, then sign the form. The form must be copied twice: one copy for the advisor and one for the student. The original form should be taken to the main office, where it will reside in the student’s academic folder.

Forms related to courses (i.e., class conflict forms, add/drop forms) are available from the Main Office.

13 Scholarships

Each year the Department of Theatre awards various scholarships to outstanding students through the generosity of retired faculty, alums, and lovers of theatre. These special scholarships are based on merit and have an expectation of maintaining good academic standing.

General Scholarships

The amounts of these scholarships vary year to year based on availability of funds, and the amount of students receiving the award.

The following scholarships are available for students in theatre:

• Chicago Bar Association Scholarship in Theatre
  College of A&A Scholarship, Theatre
  Michael Gross Scholarship
• William F. Raffeld Scholarship
  UIC Theatre and Music Scholarship Award

Tuition Awards

The Theatre Program offers talent-based tuition awards to offset your tuition costs. Application information and deadlines will be posted on the theater call board mid-semester. If you are the recipient of a tuition waiver you will receive notification via e-mail. Note that your UIC tuition bill may not show your tuition waiver (or other financial aid) for several months. If your tuition bill does not reflect an award or aid on subsequent bills, see the department secretary for help in getting this sorted out. Be sure to get a copy of your Award Letter from the university Financial Aid Office. To avoid interest charges, you must pay your portion of the bill when received. The tuition award can only be used for tuition payments, and cannot cover housing or other fees.

Change of Address

In order for the department to send out award letters and other important correspondence by mail, students are responsible for changing their address with the department when they move. Address changes must be given to the department, to Admissions and Records, and to the College of Architecture and the Arts office, 208 Jefferson Hall. Please be sure to give your new address to all three of these offices.
The Department of Theatre at UIC has affiliations with a number of Chicago area performance groups and organizations.

Goodman Theatre/ League of Chicago Theaters
Professor Derrick Sanders in partnership with Goodman Theatre/ League of Chicago Theaters presents annually the August Wilson Monologue Competition which invites hundreds of Midwest-area high school students to compete in the Chicago Regional Semi-Finals in February. The three winners travel to New York for the National Finals round in May which are presented by True Colors and Jujamcyn theaters at the August Wilson Theater on Broadway. School of Theatre & Music (STM) provides rehearsal and competition space, faculty serve as performance coaches and judges, and theatre majors serve as mentors and event facilitators.

Hubbard Street Dance Chicago / Lou Conte Dance Studio
Partnership allows UIC theatre majors to take professional dance lessons for 1 credit and at no additional cost, and shares classroom and/or rehearsal space at both UIC and Hubbard Street locations for both UIC and Hubbard Street Dance Chicago.

Lookingglass Theatre Company
Partnership allows UIC student interns to spend a semester working with the artistic personnel of the company, either as interns with the artistic director or with the director of a particular show in the company’s season.

Steppenwolf Theatre Company
Partnership allows UIC student interns to spend a semester working with Steppenwolf’s First Look series that fosters the creation and performance of new works. Interns observe the development of the work with the playwright and director as well as auditions, rehearsals, and performances. Each student’s internship culminates in a presentation of that student’s particular discoveries throughout the internship.

15 Student Employment
Many students need to work in order to be able to attend UIC. Please be advised that this can spread your time and energy thin, adversely affecting your schoolwork. Be aware of all your time commitments to classes and productions before you set your work schedule, and take care of yourself so that you can manage your many responsibilities. Missing or being late for rehearsals and classes because of work is not acceptable.

Student Employment through the School is available to students qualifying for Federal work study. Consult your Financial Aid Statement (FAFSA) to see if you have qualified and accepted your award for work study.

Contact Information
All inquiries regarding School employment, pay schedules, and hours should be directed to the Business Manager. If a student is employed through the School for specific work with a faculty member, questions regarding hours should be directed to them.
Positions Available

Positions for student work vary by School needs. Student work might include: Music Media lab monitor, front-of-house operations for concerts, box office assistant, set up for concerts and master classes, teaching assistant, and help at audition dates.

Specific positions and other information may be posted on the UIC Student Employment Job Board. http://www.uic.edu/depts/st_empl/job_listings.shtml.

16 Summer Theatre Camp______________________________

Each summer UIC produces a summer Theatre Camp geared towards Chicago area high school students. The camp runs for two weeks in July. Majors are encouraged to apply to work at the camp as counselors.

Campus Counseling (312) 996-3490.

Our work in the Theatre Program is very intense and can be quite stressful. It is not at all unusual for students to discover a need for counseling with a professional, and we encourage it. If you—or anyone you know—appears to be in crisis or heading that direction, please feel free to call the Counseling Center at (312) 996-3490 and make an appointment, regardless of whether or not the student’s insurance is with Campus Care.

Medical Insurance

All UIC students are automatically enrolled with CampusCare. However, students who have comparable medical insurance (e.g., covered by parents or spouse’s insurance) can opt out by submitting a Waiver Form. Act fast: the form is due in early September. No repeat action is needed in subsequent semesters. Call 312.996.353 or go to http://www.uic.edu/hsc/campuscare/ to get the opt-out waiver form.
