VOICE

- Sing two prepared songs of contrasting solo repertoire (art song, aria, lied, folk song, spiritual, etc...).
- Songs should consist of two contrasting languages.
- All songs must be performed from memory.
- Songs should show potential, interpretive ability, and musicianship.
- No acapella or prerecorded music; an accompanist will be provided.
 - If you will be submitting a recorded audition in lieu of coming to campus and cannot perform with an accompanist, it is acceptable to sing acapella
- Bring three copies of your music for the faculty and accompanist.
- Students should also be prepared to do a brief sight singing or ear training exercise with the faculty.
 - Note that sight singing will not be required if you opt to submit a recorded audition, but faculty may request to meet via Zoom to work on some sight singing exercises with you.

STRINGS

- At least 6 minutes of prepared solo work, preferably music from two contrasting movements
- Bring 2 additional copies of your music for the committee
- Major scales through three flats and three sharps
- Sight reading
 - Note that sight reading will not be required if you opt to submit a recorded audition, but faculty may request to meet via Zoom to work on some sight reading exercises with you.

PIANO

- Two selections of contrasting style periods, chosen from the classical piano repertoire
- A skill assessment that includes reading scale patterns, chords and sight reading
 - Note that sight reading will not be required if you opt to submit a recorded audition, but faculty may request to meet via Zoom to work on some sight reading exercises with you.
