REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Pre-Festival Registration

- All potential participants must be nominated by a music educator. When the nomination period ends, potential participants accepted into the honor band will receive an email within a few days with instructions on how to register for the festival. Prompt registration is appreciated, but the deadline is October 20.
- There is a registration fee of $85 that can be paid with a credit card through our registration portal or by providing cash or a check. Financial assistance is available. Please contact uicbands@uic.edu for more information.

Festival Check-in and Onsite Registration

- All participants should proceed to the registration table in the lower-level theatre lobby upon arrival at the ETMSW Building on UIC's campus. Registration will begin at 4:00 pm and we hope all participants will have checked in at the registration table no later than 5:00 pm.
- All participants must email the completed forms to mailto:UICBands@uic.edu or bring them to the registration table on Friday. These forms include the Participation Release Form, Medical Release Form, and Photograph Consent Form. These forms were sent via email and are available on the event website: go.uic.edu/honorsband
- All students who selected "Pay by Check" in the payment information when registering should also bring cash or a check to cover the festival fees at registration on Friday. Checks should be made out to "University of Illinois Chicago". No payment is needed if a school is covering the festival fees on behalf of students or if the fees were paid online when accepting the nomination.

• After completing the on-site registration, students will be brought to a room to warm up and store their belongings. Parents who are attending with their student will be able to relax in the theatre lobby.

REHEARSAL INFORMATION

Music

- Audition Music: A seating audition will be held before the first rehearsal on Friday evening. Audition music is provided in packets sent out via email and available on the event website after the nomination period has closed. Wind students should choose one excerpt (Beginner, Intermediate, or Advanced) from the packets in addition to the chromatic scale. Percussion students should choose one Snare Drum and one Mallet excerpt (Beginner, Intermediate, or Advanced) in addition to the chromatic scale on a mallet instrument. Seating auditions are only to determine the seating and the most appropriate musical part. No students will be cut from participating.
- Festival Music: All Festival Music will be provided by UIC Bands at the first rehearsal after the seating auditions are complete.

Meals

- Meals and snacks will not be provided.
- There are a variety of dining options on and close to campus. A list of a few options is available at the end of this document.
- Students may purchase snacks at vending machines located on the second floor of the ETMSW Building or choose to bring their own meals from home.

Rehearsal Etiquette

- All participants are expected to attend and be on time for all festival activities. If issues arise that may cause a late arrival or absences, please communicate with UIC Band Faculty as soon as possible.
- Students are expected to be respectful of others and exhibit positive behaviors while interacting with participating in the festival activities.
- All students are expected to be as prepared as possible, which includes bringing their instrument and other required equipment (e.g., reeds, mouthpieces), a pencil, and music. Additionally, the following players should also be prepared with the following instruments/equipment:
 - Flute Students: If interested in being considered for piccolo as well, bring a piccolo to the Friday audition and be prepared to play a portion of the audition on piccolo.
 - Trumpet Students: Bring straight mutes to rehearsals, if possible.
 - Percussion Students: Percussionists are required to provide a pair of drumsticks and a pair of general-purpose mallets. The UIC Bands will provide other sticks, mallets, and all percussion instruments for use during rehearsals. We ask that all percussionists utilize the provided percussion equipment with professionalism and proper technique.
